

The Garden District
Mazyck-Wraggborough Neighborhood Association Notes December 3, 2007

Our last meeting of The Garden District Mazyck-Wraggborough Neighborhood Association was Monday, December 3, 2007 at 6:30 p.m. held at the Rising High Bakery.

Our President, Vangie Rainsford and City Councilman Robert Mitchell discussed what may happen with the Federal Building. They feel the new owner, John Duberry of Atlanta is likely to ask for a PUD to allow zoning changes.

Sue Flaster discussed the traffic problem on Chapel Street with through trucks. She has been talking to Livability Court about changing the signs to state No Through Trucks. Also, citations are to be handed out soon for failing to yield to pedestrians in the crosswalks on Calhoun Street.

Robert Mitchell mentioned that a lot of money that was to go to street repair will now be put aside for possible law suits from the Super Sofa Fire. Also, as there are new members on the council, viewpoints and positions may be different.

There was no news on the sale of the Fourth Baptist Tabernacle Church.

Our Holiday Party is to be:

Tuesday, December 11, 2007 6:30 p.m.
Home of Gene Brown
79 Alexander Street

Please bring an appetizer and join your neighbors for a good time!
